5 PERSONS KILLED AS TRAIN HITS CAR

Philadelphia Couples, One Married Three Weeks, Dead Near Quakertown

ALSO LOSES LIFE

Five Philadelphians, one a baby, were killed when an electric train collided with their automobile. Two other ersons were killed and four injured in other week-end traffic accidents around Philadelphia.

Those killed in the collision with the train were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller. twenty-six and twenty-two years old respectively; Mr. and Mrs. Hardie H. Febrel, thirty-three and twenty-seven years old, and Beatrice Februel, two years old.

The Fehnel family lived at 5908 North Thirteenth street. Mr. Febnel was a cousin of Mrs. Miller, who," with lived at 2025 Chestnut treet. The Millers were married about three weeks ago. The crash occurred Saturday night when the two families were motoring to Chapman Quarries, near Bath, where their parents have a home. The scene of the accident was on the Allentown road about one mile south of Quaker-Miller was driving. The road takes an oblique turn over the tracks of the Lehigh Valley Transit Co. Hiram Erb. o allow the car to pass.

The machine did slow down, he said.

and then, when he increased speed with once rated as one of Boston's wealthiest, the expectation of a clear track. Fehnel men, finds herself compelled to return also put on speed and the train struck to the stage as the result of reverses in the automobile as it crossed the track.

The five passengers were killed in-Februal was a salesman for Kiefaber & Co., wholesale produce merchants, of Produce and Newmarket streets, and Miller was a bookkeeper of the Commercial Trust Co.

Petro Gorgoretta, 5022 Master street, was struck by an autorbobile on Lancaster avenue near Fortieth street Saturday night and died in the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital. William C. Fields, forty-two years old, 2400 Columbia avenue, the driver, was arrested.

William Bath, of Berwyn, was killed when the automobile he was driving collided with a truck near Eagleville. Saturday night, Louis J. Hogan and Saturday night. Louis J. Hogan and dations and service. Other claums for Saturday night. Louis J. Hogan and dations and service. Other claums for ship Robert E. Paist, of Berwyn, who were lowed in quick succession and Mr. Ship were reach 1917.

Mrs. Elizabeth Egle, fifty-five years old, 6540 Woodland avenue, was struck trolley car at Sixty-sixth street and Woodland avenue, at 11:20 o'cloc last night. She was taken to the University Hospital, where physicians say her condition is serious. Harry Bevans, motorman of the trolley, was held under $400 bail by Magistrate Harris today and Race streets.

THUGS SLUG CONDUCTOR

Later, when the car was proceeding in dignity.

One of the chief duties the incumbent
One of the chief duties the incumbent set upon him again, wielding bottles and clubs. The motorman of the car came to Shafer's rescue with an iron

The conductor was taken to the Penssylvania Hospital. His head and body are covered with cuts and bruises.

WOMEN NOT TO APPEAL

Decide to Make No Further Effort to Get Vote

An appeal to the Supreme Court from a decision of the Court of Common Pleas, which refused 3000 women registration because they had not been assessed within two months prior to the day of election, will be withdrawn by Leopold C. Giass and George Wharton Pepper, who represented the appellants. Announcement to this effect was made

The Supreme Court is now sitting in Pittsburgh. Judges Simpson and von Mohchzisker, who were delegated to the Appellate Court to take up the question, have expressed the belief that the lower court did not err. Counsel for the women then decided to press the case no further.

Coal Cars Leave Track at Rad-

Marcel Kauezka, seventeen years old, 232 Monroe street, was shot in the left thigh while putting up a plucky fight against a burglar he found in his home, early today.

After being shot, Kauezka managed to have the hand in which the burglar had the revolver. The boy saw the flash in the darkened room, and grabbed at the hand in which the burglar had the revolver. The burglar had the revolver. The boy saw the flash in the darkened room, and grabbed at the hand in which the burglar had the revolver. The burglar had the boy and is believed to have struck the burglar. But in the momentary suspense that followed the shot, Kauezka released his thought to have taken effect in the intruder's parents were awakened by following the serious freight wreek following the serious freight wreck which occurred there yesterday morn

No. 1 track is still closed to traffic, but a relief force of wrecking crews is rapidly removing debris and repairing the torn-out rails and ties. Freight traffic is being diverted over the Trenton cut-off.

Twenty-eight cars of an eastbound preference freight piled up over Nos.

Shortly after 1 o'clock by a noise in an adjoining room. He got out of bed and tiptoed to the doorway, where he saw a man ransack in the burgum transport of the burgum traffic is being diverted over the Trenton cut-off.

Without giving an alarm, Kauezka, who is a big youth, sprang on the burglar's back. He, too, was a big penter streets station because of the semidarkness in which the fight was fought.

preference freight piled up over Nos. 1, 2 and 3 tracks, wiped out a large section of the Radnor passenger shed and destroyed a bridge over the road-

The train was speeding castward from Enola, Pa. There were fifty-nine cars in the train, loaded with coal. As the train swept past the Radnor station, a broken archbar on the fifteenth car dropped to the track.

The heavy car buckled to one side and the succeeding twenty-seven cars Boston, Oct 25 .- Julia Arthur, one left the rails and hurtled over the defec-American stage some twenty years ago and the heavy steel cars plowed their and wife of Benjamin Pierce Chency, way through the passenger shed and once rated as one of Boston's wealthiest, overhead bridge. The three tracks of men, finds herself compelled to return the Main Line were uprooted for a distance of several hundred feet.

It was definitely determined today her husband's business enterprises. Her that the man, woman and child, seen return to the footlights is expected on the eastbound platform a short time before the wreck, escaped. They ing, No. 1 track remaining closed.

Dairymen along the Main Line, who ship their milk to this city by train. reach their market yesterday.

WOMAN UNMASKS ROBBER

Identifies Picture as That of Intruder and Arrest Follows Quick action by Mrs! Fannie Rosen oaum in tearing a mask from the face of a burglar who robbed her this of a burgiar who robbed her this morning at her place of business, 606 Callowhill street, led to the arrest of the intruder a few hours later.

The prisoner is Thomas Loftus, Franklin and Spring Garden streets. He was held without bail for court at a hearing before Magistrate Mo at a hearing before Magistrate Mecleary at Central Station.

Three other masked men entered the place and took $25 from Mrs. Rosen-baum's clothing while they covered her with revolvers. Mrs. Rosenbaum pulled the mask from the face of one of the men as he ran out. Later she was taken to City Hall by Detective

Pierce and there she recognized the picture of Loftus as that of the man Loftus was found hiding behind bureau in his home.

she had unmasked.

WANT TO BE A DIPLOMAT? SWALLOWED EVIDENCE

Denmark Wants One Here and Will

Double Salary Weekly of Dope and Prisoner Gets 3 Months A chance to serve the Danish crown with bonor and no suspicion of commercialism is offered to any one who cares to apply for the position of unsalaried bonorary Danish vice consul of this city. Sixth and South streets last night.

THUGS SLUG CONDUCTOR

P. R. T. Man is Rescued by Motorman With Iron Bar
Thugs attacked William Shafer, of 4028 North Eighth street, twice last night while Shafer, was making a frip as conductor on an Eighth and Ninth streets trolley car.

Five men boarded the car southbound, at Eighth street and Girard avenue. They incited a quarrel with the conductor, and after striking him several times, they left the car at Eighth street and Girard averal times, they left the car at Eighth street in the conductor, and after striking him several times, they left the car at Eighth street in company with a darker sorth of the consulate in company with a darker sorth obusiness in company with a devention of this city. The man had interviewed several other men, and seemed to be passi Swede goes about his vice consulate business in company with a darker sort of Denmark. It is a place not lacking in dignity.

One of the chief duties the incumbent of the office will have to face is the office will have to face will have to face

Washington avenue to see that the rail-road crossing was clear. The same men passport traffic.

JULIA ARTHUR

Who will return to the stage owing wealthy husband, Benjamin Pierce

JULIA ARTHUR TO ACT AGAIN

Will Return to Stage Soon-Husband Loses Wealth

To Debate League of Nations The Social Workers' Club will hold its first regular fall meeting in the New Century Club this evening. The subject of discussion will be "The League of Nations in the Campaign." Thomas Raeburn White taking the Republican viewpoint and Samuel Price Wetherill, Jr., the Democratic.

University Activities Scheduled at Penn Today

12:30 o'clock-Freshman Assem bly, Weightman Hall. 7 o 'clock — Pennsylvania board meeting, Houston Club, 7 o'clock-Scalp and Blade Society meeting, Houston Club. 7 o'clock-Glee and Instrumental Clubs rehearsal, Architectural build-

8 o'clock-Rally of Democratic

YOUTH SHOT IN STRUGGLE, BUT PUTS BURGLAR TO ROUT

Marcel Kauezka, of 232 Monroe Street, Springs on Night Intruder in Dark Room-Tries to Hold Him in Vain

truder's body.

Young Kauezka, who sleeps in the second story back room, was awakened by shortly after 1 o'clock by a noise in shortly after 1 o'clock by a noise in time to see the intruder escape out the

SCORES RECKLESS DRIVER

Magistrate Promises to Aid Cortel

you in His Crusade

motorcar operated by Jones crashed into a tree at Twelfth street and Windrim avenue. The car was badly damaged.

Fitzgerald was fined $10, and a $5 fine was imposed on Clayton.

Deaths of a Day in Paris Word was received from Paris, by relatives here yesterday announcing the death of George R. Ostheimer, formerly a member of the Union League, and for forty years, until his death last Sunday, a resident of the French country.

Mr. Ostheimer was seventy years old and was born in this city. He was one of the organizers of the American coi-ony in Paris, and took an active part in the social life of Americans since he went there in 1880, as an exporter

MRS. BRADLEY MARTIN

in 1897 Dies in England

American society leaders. Mrs. Martin-died at her estate, Hampstead-Mar-shall, Newbury, Berks, England, where she had been living since 1914, though spending part of her time in her Lon-don house in 54 Chesterfield Gardens.

Mrs. Martin, for many years perhaps the most-talked-of figure in American society, was the daughter of the late Isaac Sherman, of Buffalo, who had made an immense fortune in the cooper-age business.

Mrs. Martin was the hostess of the famous "Bradley Martin ball" at the Waldorf in 1897, an event that remains landmark in the social history of the

You don't want to be sick.

You want to be healthy.

Whichever you are is up to

COLLINS INSTITUTE

OF PHYSICAL CULTURE

Send for our booklet.

Stenton avenue.

rench capital.

HONOR DEAD PATROLMAN

Little Girls and Boys Give Flowers

for McAntee A motorist accused of operating an automobile while intoxicated was held for court today by Magistrate Price, who declared he is in accord with Director Cortelyou in that official's fight ty-second street and Hunting Park averages automobile drivers and the peak of the price of A great red heart built of flowers nue police station will stand at the head against reckless automobile drivers.

The man held for court in $400 bail of the coffin of Patrelman John Mcis Robert M. Jones, 8234 Germantown Antee at his home at 2820 North Van Antee at his home at 2820 North Van avenue. Jones was arrested at 1:30 o'clock this morning, together with Raymond Fitzgerald, 1227 East Chelten avenue, and Robert Clayton, 6123 Pelt street tonight.

During the course of the thirty-five boys, members of the Green Ribbon Social Club of the district, will file past the bier and place there, each in his turn, a white carnation.

All this is a tribute from the full hearts of the neighborhood children, who dearly loved the patrolinan, who met death last Friday when the patrol wagon in which he was riding crashed into a tree after a collision with a killing one man outright and causing the death of McAntec the same day.

G. R. OSTHEIMER

The collection for the little girls' floral tribute is being taken up by Stella Malinski, who lives at 2200 Yelland street, directly in the rear of the station house. The money that is left after the piece is purchased will be used to buy flowers for Sergeant Frank Ma honey, who was injured in the same ac-

SAILORS TO GET MEDALS Delayed Presentations to Be Made at Navy Yard and twenty navy crosses were received and importer.

Mr. Ostheimer was educated in this at the Philadelphia Navy Yard today for Mr. Ostheimer was educated in this city and was graduated from the Central High School in the class of 1869. He entered business here, and was a member of Ostheimer Bros. His wife, the nicce of Anthony Pollock, a well-known lawyer of Washington, died recently. He was president of the American Chamber of Commerce in Paris, and during the war was president of an office of the commerce in Paris, and during the war was president of an office of the commerce in Paris, and officers stationed there. The crosses were awarded in citations made a year ago for service in the war. Most of the awards are to commanders and lieutenant commanders for war service overseas on destroyers and transports.

during the war was president of an crosses are Captain Yates Stirling, cap-American charitable institution there, tain of the Philadelphia Navy Yard American charitable institution there. tain of the Philadelphia Navy Yard. He had six children, and three sons and Captain C. S. Kempff, inspection served in the French army. He was a officer.

The Distinguished Service Medals are the Associate and fine him officer.

prietor of the Arcadia cafe in this city. for Captain Orin G. Murfin, senior aid to the commandant of the yard, who established mine bases on the Scottish coast, and Captain William E. Rey-nolds, comander of the destroyers' base Hostess of Famous New York Ball at the Navy Yard, who commanded the mine layer Canandaigua, which helped iew York, Oct. 25.—Cable messages lay the mine field in the North Sea.

REPUBLICAN RALLY

George Wharton Pepper and Mrs. Arthur Livermore Will Be Speakers at Meeting

EXPECTED

Men and women from all over the state are expected to attend the Republican mass-meeting to be held in the Academy of Music tonight under the auspices of the Republican women's campaign committee.

With the exception of a section reserved for the workers of the committee in the various wards of the city and the boxes, the entire house will the boxes, the entire house will be thrown open to men and women holding general admission fickets, which may be optained today at the G. O. P. cafe-teria, 1420 Chestnut street, and at the teria, 1429 Chestnut street, and at the city headquarters, 506 South Broad street. The doors of the Academy will be opened tonight at 7 o'clock.

The League of Nations and other important issues of the campaign will be discussed by George Wharton Pepper, who will preside; Mrs. Arthur Livermore, who represents New York on the national executive committee; Miss Monda Wetmore, representing Rhode national executive committee; Miss Maude Wetmore, representing Rhode Island on the national executive com-mittee, and Mrs. Alexandra Pfeiffer, who seconded the nomination of Governor Coolidge at the Republican Na-

Singing of campaign songs by the audience and a chorus of 150 trained voices will be one of the features of the The singing will be directed by rally Miss Anna McDonough.

Among the prominent Republican workers who are expected to occupy boxes are Governor and Mrs. William C. Sproul, Mayor and Mrs. J. Hampton Moore and Mrs. Barelay H. War-burton, chairman of the Republican women's committee of Pennsylvania. Mrs. George Horace Lorimer, vice chairman of the ways and means committee of the Republican National Committee for Pennsylvania, and Mrs. ter S. Thomson, chairman of the Republican women's committee of Philadelphia county, will occupy seats on the stage with the speakers.

3 HELD IN $10,000 THEFT

Men Are Accused of Taking Furs From Store of I. Burkim

Three men were held without bail for court by Magistrate Carney yesterday, charged with the larceny of $10,000 worth of silks and furs from the shop of I. Burkim, 271 South Fifty-second street, several days ago-

The men, who were arrested at Twenty-first and Green streets when Two Distinguished Service Medals an automobile in which they were riding broke down, gave their names as Tony Mardo. Twentieth and Green streets; George Lucas, Fifteenth and Winter streets, and Juan Lugo, Second and Lombard streets. Three bags containing the stelen goods are said by the police to have been found in their pos-These were identified

GIVE as Your Heart Dictates

Anna Howard Shaw

Gave Her Best

MISS MARGARET MAJOR One of the silent poll watche.s who was or seen on election day bearing banners like the above They ask contributions to a fund permanent memorial to the late Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, long a suffrage leader

MAY OFFER $5000 FOR PAUL SLAYERS

Company That Paid Bank's $40,000 Loss Through Slain Messenger May Act

ONE MAN STILL DETAINED

A reward of $5000 for the capture of the slayers of David S. Paul, Camden tank messenger, found buried in a swamp in the New Jersey pine belt near Tabernacle, N. J., on October 16, is planned by the authorities seeking to unravel the mysterious robbery and Prosecutor Charles A. Wolverton, of Camden county, said today the insurance company which made good the loss of $40,000 in cash that was in Paul's, ossession when he disappeared Octobe bis considering offering a reward. Paul also carried $30,000 in checks when he was last seen at the Camden ferries on his way to a Philadelphia bank. These were found in the pockets of the murby duck hunters in the swamp on the road to Sooy Place, fifteen miles from

Mr. Holly.
Following Paul's disappearance a reward of $1000 was posted by the insurance company for his apprehension as an embezzier, but the discovery of his body changed the entire aspect of the case. The authorities are at loss to understand whether I aut was the victim of a conspiracy to rob him, with a woman as a decoy, or whether the murdered bank runner had planned to embezzle the funds and was later mux-dered by his companions.

Frank James, an automobile sales man of Brooklawn, N. J., a shippard village south of Gloucester, is still detained by the Camden authorities as the last known person to have seen Paulonities. James, the authorities declare, was often the companion of Paul and on the day of Paul's disappearance drove the murdered bank runner to the forcing.

Beginning this morning

The only event of its kind we have held in years!

An Unloading Sale of Perry's Entire Fall and Winter Stocks of Higher-Priced

Clothes

Involving

$400,000 worth of the Finest Merchandise ever assembled under this or any other roof!

At Substantial Reductions

HERE is no occasion to discuss the Whys and Wherefores. They are too obvious to need explanation. Business has got to be stimulated, and the only stimulus the public takes to in these times, is reduced prices. So we're furnishing the stimulus. We're going to clean out our entire 1920 Fall and Winter stocks, and you are going to buy them, because we have marked them where you can't resist them!

What does this sale contain? EVERYTHING!!!

EVERYTHING in suits, from staples, to the most radical novelties loomed-EVERYTHING in overcoats, from the finest imported Crombies and Beavers and Shetlands, to the choicest coatings of American mills-EVERYTHING in evening clothes, from Tuxedos to Full Dress overcoats-EVERYTHING for every man everywhere, formal or informal, day-time, night-time, playtime, or any old time at all!

The Sale involves Every Single Suit and Every Single Overcoat, in our Stock formerly priced at from $60 up to $100, and now to be sold out at once at Substantial Reductions!

Low-priced originally—cut and double-cut now!

PERRY & CO.

16th and Chestnut Streets

POLISHED GIRDLE DIAMONDS Supreme for Quality

The Polished Girdle Diamond is decidedly more beautiful and brilliant than the ordinary cuttingcomparison invited

Sold exclusively by this Establishment

J. B. Sheppard & Sons

Have You a Bit of "OLD BLEACH?"

Rich is the "hope chest" and lucky the housewife that can boast a complement of "OLD BLEACH" Linen Table Cloths, Napkins and

Its silky fineness, its dazzling whiteness, its wondrous durability are peerless, its possession a proud priv-

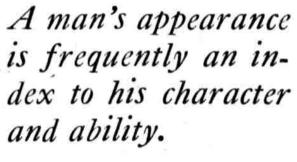

What Does "OLD BLEACH" Mean?

Pure Irish linen bleached white on the greensward of old Ireland by sunshine, wind and rain. It costs more in money, but measured by years of service and pride of pos session,

It Is the Cheapest Linen That Money Can Buy

1008 Ghestnut Street

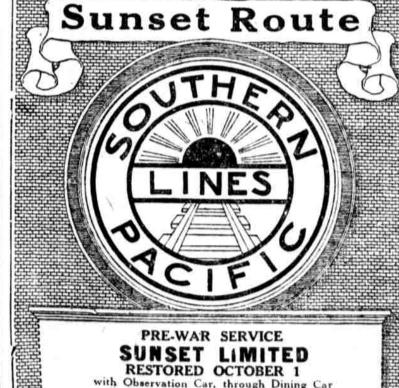

Externals do count , -sometimes they figure largely in the difference between success and nonsuccess.

¶ You owe it to yourself to dress as well as possible-money spent for really good Clothing is bound to prove a profitable investment.

JACOB REED'S SONS 1424-1426 Chestmit Street

with Observation Car, through Dining Car and all the comforts of modern travel. New Orleans-San Antonio-Los Angeles-San Francisco

SOUTHERN PACIFIC LINES F. T. Brooks, General Agent 1602 Chestnut Street

Sleeping Car Service to Clobe, Arizona, for the Side Trip to ROOSEVELT DAM, on the APACHE TRAIL